

NEW ZEALAND RED CROSS CENTENARY BOOK ORDER FORM

For 100 years now, Red Cross has been hard at work in New Zealand helping wherever they are needed most.

Social historian Margaret Tennant has followed the lives of members, volunteers and donors to uncover the history of Red Cross in New Zealand. The depth and breadth of her research is evident in her new book: Across the street, across the world: A history of the Red Cross in New Zealand 1915-2015.

This book touches on many themes in the social history of New Zealand.
